Ace Punter to Give Hope Fans a Thrill On Thursday Night

Benton's J. P. Moore Reported Best High School Kicker in Arkansas

FINAL HOME GAME

Seniors to Make Last Stand Before Home Folks and Relatives

High, spiraling football punts that soar 50 and 60 yards is not common in high school football games—but that has been promised southwest Arkansas fans here Thursday night when Benton High School's J. P. Moore starts booting that ball.

The Benton Panthers and the Hope Bobcats tie up in a conference contest at 7:30 o'clock in which the result will "make or break" the Bobcats.

A victory for the Bobcats will send them to Pine Bluff November 30 to battle for the conference crown—something that no other high school team representing Hope has been able to do. A loss for Hope—well, don't mention it.

The Benton game also promises or holds some "earmarks" of drama. For about 10 members of the starting lineup—it means the final stand before home folks and relatives of the Bobcats.

Another word about Benton's ace punter—J. P. Moore. He also is the spearhead of the Panther offensive attack. A well-built youth, he weighs 180 pounds and reports say he is about as fast as Hope's Bobby Ellen. Moore is the fifth highest scorer in the conference.

Benton's Record

The Panthers have a record of four victories, four losses and two ties. They have scored in all of the 10 games played. Here is the season record:

- Benton 6, Beebe 6.
- Benton 6, Little Rock 28.
- Benton 26, Fordyce 0.
- Benton 37, Arkadelphia 0.
- Benton 6, Bauxite 6.
- Benton 6, North Little Rock 20.
- Benton 19, Conway 0.
- Benton 6, Magnolia 20.
- Benton 6, Russellville 20.
- Benton 30, Catholic High 0.

Coach James Alf told The Star over telephone Tuesday afternoon that his team would be in top shape for the Hope contest. Coach Poy Hammons also stated that his squad would be in best physical shape.

Officials for the game will be Kerns Howard, Ouchette, referee; Bill Somerville, Henderson, umpire; Evans of Texarkana, headlinesman; O'Neal, Henderson, field judge.

School tickets announced that all season tickets—both student and adults—would be good for the Benton game. Box seats and reserve seats, of course, will be good.

It's the final home game of the season—and with weather permitting—a large crowd is expected to see the "make or break" game.

Gandhi Demands Pledge Before Granting Britain Co-operation

BAMBAY, India.—(AP)—Mahandas K. Gandhi, demanding a pledge of India's independence as the price of co-operation in the European war, declared Tuesday.

"The issue is purely moral, for owing to her material and military control, Britain is able to regulate garrisons and drain India's wealth at her will."

First Baptist to See Movie Film

"The Better Way" to Be Shown at Local Church 7:30 Wednesday

A motion picture, "The Better Way," prepared and distributed by the executive committee of the Southern Baptists, will be shown in the First Baptist church auditorium Wednesday night at 7:30.

A motion picture will be shown on Wednesday night which includes scenes in connection with the typical small town Baptist church's problems as scenes in several foreign countries. The picture closes with actual war scenes such as the bombing of Shanghai by Japanese planes, the first aid squadrons caring for the victims, and a thrilling story of how Baptist mission work helps to counteract the appetite for war.

All church members, especially Baptists, will find this special program interesting and stimulating. A large attendance is expected.

One Arrested in Hitler's Bombing

"Confession" Alleged by Chief of the Nazi Secret Police

BERLIN, Germany.—(AP)—Heinrich Himmler, chief of the Gestapo—Nazi secret police—announced Tuesday the arrest of a man in connection with the attempted bomb assassination of Adolf Hitler November 8 in Munich.

Himmler said the man, Georg Elser, 36, Munich, confessed November 14 after "steifast" denials.

Eight persons were killed by the bomb explosion in the Munich beer-cellar 11 minutes after Hitler had left following his speech celebrating the unsuccessful 1923 Nazi "putsch."

Bodcaw Township First Rural Area to Reach Its Quota

L. D. Rider Reports Total of $35.05 for Bodcaw Township

WORK GIVEN PRAISE

Weisenberger Urges Other Township Chairmen to Report Funds

Bodcaw Township is the first rural township to report in the annual Red Cross Roll call drive and the township chairman, L. D. Rider of Patmos, turned in a total of $35.05 which puts Bodcaw over the top.

The quota assigned to the township was $30.00. Mr. Rider was ably assisted by Hugh Keith and A. E. Jameson in obtaining these excellent results.

Rayne Weisenberger, Rural Roll Call Chairman, predicted that workers in each of the other ten townships exclusive of De Run and Bodcaw would reach their respective quotas by Saturday, Nov. 25, the dead line for closing the roll call, and make their reports not later than Nov. 28 so that the entire roll call could be closed by Nov. 30.

He urges all persons in the county at large, who have not yet enlisted in this year's roll call to see their workers, to leave their contribution with him or the banks at Hope and he will see that credit is given to the correct township.

Mrs. Wilbur Jones, Roll Call Chairman at Ozon, reports that Miss Elizabeth Hanna of Goodlett has secured $17 in contributions from a completely rural community in north Hempstead county.

This is an excellent illustration of what one determined volunteer worker can do and Miss Hanna's results and those obtained in Bodcaw township should be a stimulation to all workers to push forward until each township and community is over the top.

Announcements Must Be Signed

Within the last several weeks The Star has received a number of announcements which, because their senders failed to sign name and address, can not be published.

Signatures are not printed, but the authority back of the announcement must be known to the management before it can be used.

This rule is enforced absolutely in announcements concerning weddings, engagements, births and deaths. If any subscriber has sent such an announcement it is because the announcement was not signed—and unsigned communications are treated alike, even though the omission is an oversight.

Capone Gang Carries on, But Not for Him; Mob Turns From Illegal Liquor to Gambling and Vice

Ralph Capone

Lawrence Mangano

Al Capone

Frank Nitti

Murray Humphreys

Chicago isn't sure that Al Capone still holds the aces in the game he played before prison. Many of his old associates still are active, but doubt is raised that Capone controls them. His brother, Ralph, is bound by ties of blood, but he said recently he is working for $50 a week. Nitti, once regarded as the "brains" of the group, himself served an income tax sentence. While he was away, Humphreys was regarded as "No. 1" man. Mangano and Nitti were two of those named by the state's attorney in a list of Chicago vice and gambling chiefs.

Former Associates Reported Not Likely to Welcome Chief

Chicago Isn't Sure Al Capone Still Holds the Aces in Underworld Game

CHICAGO.—Al Capone's gangland empire has transferred its activities to new fields since its leader was bundled off to prison—And maybe its allegiance has been transferred, too.

By NEA Service
If Capone should try to resume his interrupted career following his release from more than seven years in prison, he would find the field still profitable. But that his old lieutenants who still are active would be willing to put him back at the top of the heap is far from certain.

The Capone syndicate, as Chicago police call the post-repeal hangover of the old mob, shifted its attention for the most part to more lawful fields when repeal ended the big money in illicit liquor. The group is said to still control part of the Windy City's cleaning and dyeing industry.

Horse racing, vice and gambling add to the syndicate's revenue. Most of Chicago's betting handbooks are under its management. Police say bookies who wish to operate under their own auspices are forced to pay protection in order to stay healthy and in business.

Proceeds from the advance ticket sale to the Friday night show will be used to help defray expenses in sending the band to Pine Bluff for the Thanksgiving game. Both the possibility of a championship game there and the fact that Pine Bluff boasts one of the finest Class A bands in the state make the presence of the Hope High band, a champion Class B band itself, at the Turkey-Day game imperative.

The feature attraction on the benefit program Friday night will be a concert similar to one given several weeks ago. However, this concert will be longer and will contain many new features. Further details will be announced later this week.

Staying Reveal Syndicate's Activity
The recent shotgun slaying of Edward J. O'Hare, president of Chicago's Sportsman Park race track revealed what police believe is the syndicate's intention to branch out into other fields of professional sport. O'Hare was found to be a director of the Chicago Cardinals, professional football club, and was known to have been angling for a roller skating derby concession in several southern states.

O'Hare was regarded as "front" man for the syndicate and as Capone's stand in during the latter's Alcatraz stay. Chicago police claim to be as mystified as the public about the part former Capone lieutenants play in the present syndicate setup. Two years ago State's Attorney Courtney listed Frank Nitti, Charles Fischetti, Louis Campagna, Lawrence Mangano and Danny Stanton among the county's vice and gambling chiefs.

Many Old Cronies Still in Chicago

Still known to be around Chicago are Frank Nitti, once regarded as the brains of the mob; Murray Humphreys, regarded as the gang's No. 1 man while Nitti was serving an income tax term; Jack Guzik, one time general manager of the syndicate; Lawrence Mangano and others.

Ralph Capone, Al's brother, recently stated he was employed at $50 a week by a water bottling concern. Frank Diamond, the ex-gangster's brother-in-law and former bodyguard, told police he was a contractor.

Danny Stanton, questioned last October about a fatal shooting, said he was a tavern owner. Hyman Levin's loop handbooks were among the first to feel the ax in a drive conducted

England to Push Drive on Neutrals

Will Seize Merchandise Neutrals Carry Away From Germany

LONDON, Eng.—(AP)—Great Britain has decided to seize exports of German merchandise or origin on the high seas, Prime Minister Chamberlain announced Tuesday, in retaliation for what he called "Many violations of international law, and the ruthless brutality of German methods."

As Chamberlain made his announcement to the House of Commons attributing to German mines the heavy merchandise losses off the British east coast of the past few days another ship, the 11,930-ton Japanese passenger liner Terukuni Maru, was sunk off the east coast.

The sinking liner carried a crew of 180 and 25 passengers. Other craft rushed to the rescue, and some survivors were brought to shore. British reprisals against Germany, extending the blockade to exports as well as imports, would mean concentration on neutral shipping since Germany herself has practically no ships at sea now.

The aim would be to halt completely all sea commerce with Germany. Chamberlain made his statement in reply to a question by Laborite Leader Clement Attlee on whether the government proposed to take action as the result of the laying of mines.

Tuesday the British mine-sweeper trawler Mastiff was added to the toll, becoming Britain's sixth admitted naval loss of the war.

U. S. Non-Committal
WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Sumner Welles, acting secretary of state, said Tuesday that the United States has advised Britain it is not to be understood as endorsing any principle of interference with its neutral trade.

Welles made his statement shortly after the British embassy had disclosed that December 1 the British would start a pre-selling system of investigating American exports to 11 European neutral nations.

Huge Scrap-Iron Order to Britain

850,000 Tons to England, 150,000 to Italy, 100,000 to Japan

NEW YORK.—(AP)—A record order for 850,000 tons of scrap iron has been placed in the United States for shipment to England's war-burdened steel mills, it was learned Tuesday.

In addition, it was said, Italy bought around 150,000 tons, and Japan 100,000 tons.

TAX LEVIES FIXED

Equalization Board and Road Commissioners Are Elected

Hempstead County Quorum Court adopted a budget of $28,330 for 1940 county operating expenses, fixed tax rates, elected a county tax equalization board and named road commissioners at its session at Hope city hall Monday afternoon. Twenty-two justices attended.

The 1940 budget of $28,330 exceeds the 1939 budget by $1,303.

Included in the new budget is an appropriation of $300 for a county library project. By appropriating this sum it was explained that $3,000 a year would be forthcoming from other sources for the county-wide library project.

The court failed to appropriate any money for the county fair which was asked by R. P. Bowen, secretary of Hope chapter of commerce.

Elected as road commissioners to serve with County Judge Frank Rider are Gordon Prescott of McCaskill and E. L. Rider of Patmos. Under a new state law these three men will have charge of the entire county road system—replacing road overseers in each township.

Annual Tax Levies
The 22 justices unanimously voted and approved the following tax levies: Nine mills on all taxable property, both real and persona, for state purposes.

Five mills for county general fund. Three mills for county road fund. Five mills for corporation tax for Hope, Washington, Ozon, Blevins, McCaskill and Fulton.

Five per cent on $1 on all taxable property within the Hempstead County No. 1 levee district (Fulton vicinity.)

Chewing Found to Reduce Tension, Does Not Interfere With Efficiency

It has been suggested repeatedly that one of the chief benefits of smoking and chewing gum is their value as outlets for increased tension. It has been said that most habitual movements of the body represent release of such inner tension.

Fidgeting, wriggling and gum-chewing are examples of movements which may be beneficial to the human body because they release excess pressure.

Recently psychologists at Columbia University made a study of 20 people over a period of 20 days to find out just how much chewing served as a means of relaxation. Each of the persons concerned was studied first while not chewing; second, while chewing ordinary chewing gum, and third, while allowing a flavored candy wafer to melt in the mouth.

It was necessary first of all to find some measurement of tension or strain. This was done by watching each one of the persons concerned throughout a working day and recording restless movements. In many of these subjects it was found that tension, as measured by decrease of restless movements, was decreased about 10 per cent during chewing.

Studies were also made to determine whether indulgence in such a habit had any relation to fatigue. Fatigue produces increased psychological tension. When people are tired from overwork and overstrain, the use of tea and coffee seems to increase tension. On the other hand, it was found in these studies, chewing tended to decrease tension. The amount of muscular effort involved is hardly sufficient to increase fatigue.

A study was also made to find out whether chewing during work would interfere in any way with the possible expectation of work in which a wholly new performance is being learned, chewing while working does not interfere with the output. Indeed, in some kinds of work, like number checking and typing, the work is said to be facilitated.

This new scientific evidence will be good news to the manufacturers of chewing gum. Prof. H. L. Hollingsworth, under whose direction these studies were made, says that perhaps these studies throw some light on the striking fact that during the last ten or more tense years, chewing gum manufacturers have enjoyed greater prosperity.

THE PAYOFF

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Kentuckians are rubbing their eyes over their state university's swift climb to gridiron heights in the second year under an alumnus drafted from the high school coaching ranks.

Coach Ab Kirwan's Wildcats reached a new high in bluegrass popularity when they banged Alabama around in the second half for a 7-7 tie. The Crimson Tide had been slaughtering Kentucky for 16 years.

Even before that, though, the fans had rated Kirwan's 1939 squad as a terrific success. They'd beaten Vanderbilt (20-13) for the first time in a 43-year-old series. They'd downed Georgia (13-6) to get two Southeastern Conference victories for the first time since 1935.

What's more, they'd also licked V. M. I. (21-0), Oglethorpe (59-0), and Xavier of Cincinnati (21-0), and were undefeated. Not since 1933 had a Wildcat team won more than three games in a row.

No Rose Bowl Shouts

Nobody's shouting "Rose Bowl" even now, but they're not conceding anything to Kentucky's remaining opponents—not even might Tennessee in the traditional "Thanksgiving Day" battle on November 30.

Kirwan was called from the post of head coach at Louisville Manual High School after Kentucky's disastrous 1937 season. The lawyer who had captained his freshman team and the 1925 varsity at Kentucky—he was a halfback—promptly took stern action to restore discipline to his charges.

He dismissed three outstanding lines men early the 1938 season although all but one of the regulars from the preceding season had been graduated or disabled by injuries. He even took it quietly when one of his best half-back prospects quit school.

His skeleton squad took its first two games against weak opposition—then took it on the chin from the seven remaining opponents. Still, the fans remained loyal.

Two-Unit Outfit

This season, Ab has had six seniors, 27 juniors and 12 sophomores to work with. He's moulded them into two elevens of approximately equal strength—one of them an all-soph outfit that has become known as the "wrecking crew"—plus able replacements.

The team, in return, has given its modest, considerate coach its best.

SERIAL STORY 5 WOULD KILL BY TOM HORNER

COPYRIGHT, 1939, NEA SERVICE, INC.

Joey di Torio

"Weren't you and Benthorne associated?" Dawson paused at the word—"in business together once?"

"Benthorne backed my first 'speakeasy'."

"You haven't had much to do with him since then?" Dawson queried.

"Only as a customer. When liquor went legal, Benthorne decided there was no quick money in it, and we dissolved our partnership." Di Torio pursed his mouth, devoted his attention to smoke rings.

"You're lying, Joey," Dawson said calmly. "You and Benthorne never dissolved your partnership." He and Benthorne have been mixed up in half the racket in this town.

"Benthorne had the habit of keeping records—private records, Joey. He had a little book in his desk here. You thought it was in the safe, didn't you, Joey? Benthorne guessed that, and kept it almost out in the open—an innocent looking little diary, but I couldn't miss it."

"Listen, Dawson," di Torio said condescendingly, "I told you I was in my club all night. I was with a party of friends. They'll tell you—" the club without stopping. Dave'll remember and so will Pete. Pete's my manager."

"So you just went out for a ride, Joey—all by yourself," Dawson shook his head. "No, Joey, I thought you could think faster than that."

"Listen, You left the Club Chateau, you drove up here to Benthorne's—you could make it in a few minutes—you came in that side entrance you always used and you found Benthorne in the study."

"You've been holding out on Benthorne, blackmailing him, and you knew Benthorne wouldn't let you get away with it. That's why he made out this record. With that book he figured he could keep your mouth closed until he found a way of closing it permanently."

"But you beat him to it, Joey. You shot Arnold Benthorne as he sat in this chair. Then you jammed that straight chair there against the door, rifled the safe, and finally, when you heard Flynn and Krone taking the door off the hinges, you went out the window. It's a closed case, Joey—and it will send you to the chair."

Di Torio was silent, studying the glowing end of his cigar. At last he spoke. "You've missed one thing in your murder case, Dawson. What time was Benthorne killed?"

"The coroner's deputy said it was right around midnight. It took Flynn and Krone a while to get the door down."

"That proves it," Di Torio smiled. "I can prove by half a dozen witnesses that I didn't leave the Club Chateau until after midnight. It was almost 12:15 before I could get away. And you had already found Benthorne's body by that time."

"AND there's one thing you've forgotten. I never thought of you, Dawson. I'm saving your job by telling you this in advance. There's the little item of a gun."

"Your cop, Flynn, lifted my automatic out of this shoulder scabbard on the way out here. Have you found the gun that killed Benthorne yet?"

"No," Dawson replied, "but Flynn probably has it in his pocket now."

"Don't be too sure about that, my friend," Joey went on confidently. "I carry a .38 automatic and it hasn't been fired in six months. And when you get that bullet out of Benthorne's head, there's one thing more to remember—ballistics tests. Surely you've heard of them!"

Smiles vs. Tears
Would I could write a song that would beguile,
All hearts of pain and leave a lasting smile,
But smiles are lovely, only when they grow,
"Twist pain and heartaches, painted row by row."
"Cry not," "Grieve not," are words I never say,
Too real is anguish to be soothed that way,
I whisper only, "wait a little while,
Some day shall grief make lovelier your smile,
Some day you shall remember and be glad To count the hours of happiness you've had."

had;
But all the brave and gentle souls you know
Have planted smiles and heartaches
how by row.—Selected.
The above selection has been used as a word of consolation to my very good friends, who have so lately been called upon to bear great sorrow.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

Principal J. H. Jones to Give Yerger Address

Principal J. H. Jones of the Hope High School will speak to the members of the student council of Yerger High School Wednesday, November 22, from 11:15 a. m. to 12 noon.
The negro student council was organized only recently. Mr. Jones will point out in his talk the value of such an organization, and how it helps both students and the faculty.

The Yerger P. T. A. meets Tuesday night at which time Miss Beryl Henry, superintendent of Hope schools, and Mr. McCuiston of the State Department of Education, will speak.

die since Al entered Alcatraz is James DeMora, better known as "Machine Gun" Jack McGurn. Suspected of having been the machine-gunner in the St. Valentine's day massacre of 1929, McGurn was shot down in a bowling alley the day after St. Valentine's day, 1936. A valentine was found in his pocket.

John Terrio, in the early 1920's an even more important figure than Capone, started serving a two-year income tax evasion term in Leavenworth last spring. James Sammons, a Capone machine gunner, is serving a life term for trying to bribe an Indiana law officer in 1933.
Tony Volpe, whose deportation was upheld that year by the U. S. Supreme Court, is said still to be in Chicago. Neither Italy nor Argentina, his birth place, would accept him.
Police estimate that the total of present and former Capone mobsters still in and around Chicago is about 100. Some are broke, a few are content with jobs as handbook doormen or race track ticket sellers, but none are doing what may be classed as hard labor.
Informed opinion is that no matter what the syndicate's next move is, whether or not Capone resumes control, O'Hare will be sorely missed. The dead man was suave, clever, and without peer as a contact with persons to whom it was important for the gang to know and be friendly.
If the syndicate ordered his execution it may live to regret it.

Doubt Conviction in Case of Kuhn

State's Case Collapsing Against German-American Bund Chief

NEW YORK.—(AP)—Fritz Kuhn, on trial for theft of money from the German-American Bund, testified Tuesday under the "leadership principle" of that organization he believed he had the power to use its funds to meet his own expenses as well as those of the Bund.
He acknowledged having sent telegrams of "love and kisses" to Mrs. Florence Camp, as charged by the prosecution, explaining that he had "been liking for her at the time."

Judge Flays Prosecution
NEW YORK.—(AP)—A declaration that the prosecution failed to show Fritz Kuhn had stolen money from his German-American Bund was made from the bench Monday by Judge James G. Wallace. At this expression of dissatisfaction with the nature of testimony, Assistant District Attorney Herman McCarthy indicated the state would reopen its case.
As McCarthy sought to cross-examine himself to prove he had no animus toward Kuhn, Judge Wallace told him not to deposit all of this money (collected by the Bund) does not prove he stole it. You must prove it was done with intent to defraud and if any of the money was spent for legitimate Bund purposes, that expenditure does not constitute larceny.

William Luedtke of Lodi, N. J., treasurer of the German-American Business League, a Bund affiliate, swore that on July 8, 1938, Kuhn gave him $500 and he had paid the money over to Daniel Kirschman, Murray's assistant, obtaining a receipt which he said he gave to Kuhn.
G. Wilhelm Kenze of Philadelphia, a subordinate Bund leader, testified he had seen in Bund headquarters in New York a letter from Murray which bore a notation indicating the $500 had been paid.

The warning was voiced in an article in the newspaper Pravda, organ of the Communist Youth League.

Texas Aggies Rate Best Team In U.S.

Farmers Replace Tennessee for First-Place Grid Honors

NEW YORK (AP)—Driving past a Tennessee team which had a hard time protecting its winning streak against a long-shot Vanderbilt, Texas A. and M. Tuesday shot into first place in the race for selection as No. 1 football power in the nation.

After four straight weeks in the driver's seat, the Vols were dropped into second place in the season's sixth Association Press ranking. At the same time the Aggies, a team which Coach Homer Norton converted from a Southwest conference also-ran into a club only one game away from a perfect season, drew 38 first place votes, 37 seconds and 17 thirds on 110 ballots for a total of 963 points.

That was enough to beat out Tennessee by 65 points, and even the Vols were hard pressed to hold second. Roaring up behind them with a 35-6 scalp of Dartmouth's Indians came unbeaten and untied Cornell, whose only performance was impressive enough to earn 865 points, only 33 less than Tennessee and 101 more than Southern California, which had been third a week ago.

Thus the standings find the three top-flight all-winning teams at the head of the list, followed by Southern Cal and Tulane, each tied once, and then in order by five teams, each of which has been defeated once.

Ohio State, which lost by nine points to Cornell but is out front in the Big Ten race; Notre Dame, which lost a one-pointed Iowa; Duke which blasted North Carolina out of the unbeaten division and out of the first ten, thus atoning for its one point loss to Pitt, Iowa, which met

Michigan and Tommy Harmon on their best day for its lone set-back, and Missouri, soundly beaten by Ohio State but winner last Saturday over Oklahoma.

The standing of the teams (points figured on 10-9-8-7-6 etc., basis, first place votes in parenthesis):

Team	Points
1. Texas A. & M. (38)	963
2. Tennessee (33)	898
3. Cornell (20)	865
4. Southern California (11)	764
5. Tulane	659
6. Ohio State (1)	420
7. Notre Dame	314 1/2
8. Duke (2)	259
9. Iowa (1)	224
10. Missouri	202 1/2

Second ten—11. Holy Cross, 133; 12. Duquesne, 110; 13. UCLA, 62 1/2; Oklahoma, 61; 15. Clemson, (1) 33; 16. Georgetown, 17, tied for 17, Santa Clara and North Carolina, 11 each; 19. Fordham, 10; tied for 20, Princeton and Georgia Tech, 7 each.

Also ran—Nebraska and Oregon State, 6 each; Colorado, 2; Mississippi 1.

If a further proof were needed, the rankings demonstrate conclusively that the games of the week will be Southern California-Notre Dame at South Bend, Ind., and Cornell-Ft. at Philadelphia. This meeting will be the Rose Bowl, which will be the last of the year for the Irish, who can look forward to facing a team well primed after an extra week's rest.

Off their comparative records, Cornell-Penn looks like an easy dish for the well-manned Ithacans. But they know from past experience that there is always trouble lying in wait for them on Franklin field, as witness last year's scoreless tie, and Penn's courageous losing battle against Michigan will have served as further warning.

Other important battles this week-end, while Tennessee and Texas Aggies await later engagements, will be Duke-North Carolina State, Iowa-Northeastern, Missouri-Kansas and Ohio State-Michigan, in which the Buckeyes will be out to take the Big Ten championship.

WE, THE WOMEN

By RUTH MILLETT

Come on women, let's do something revolutionary this Thanksgiving. For one day let's be thankful that we got the men we wanted.

You, Agatha, for instance. You wanted Charlie more than anything in life. When it looked as though Susie might cut you out, you practically gave up eating.

But ever since the day you got him, you haven't even admitted to yourself that getting Charlie was something for you to be thankful for. You've tried so hard to impress him with the fact that he was lucky to get you that now you believe it yourself.

And you, Thelma. Maybe Dick was not your first choice. But you wanted him badly enough to spend every cent you made on clothes you thought he would like. They were a good investment. But you've never admitted it. You even have Dick believing that you did him a favor to marry him.

Well, when Thanksgiving (either one you choose) rolls around this year, let's all us Agathas and Thelmads admit to ourselves, if not our men, that we are doggone thankful we got them.

And it would be even better if we would admit it to the men.

They must get awfully sick of the attitude we take: "We could have had anyone in the world—and we took you. Aren't you lucky?" Especially since they know, but

For Fourteen Years We have had the privilege of serving this community! An anniversary like this brings home to us the way we really feel about Hope. Our fourteen years here have been happy years. Hope is much more to us than just a town where we have a store; it is OUR town. Our customers are much more than just customers; they are our friends. We are proud to be able to be of service to the citizens of this, our community. If anyone can suggest ways in which we can do a more helpful job of it, we would appreciate knowing about it. We want Hope to be proud of the J. C. Penney Co., as the Penney Company is proud of Hope! Of course we have to celebrate our fourteenth birthday. And of course we want all Hope to celebrate with us. The only way we can think of to share our celebration is to do it with bargains. In true Penney fashion. So we have a store full of specially purchased new merchandise. Come in and see it—and let us prove that we mean every word we say!
